

WADE WYANT

RED WAGON ADVISORS & REDEGADES.AI

INTRODUCTION TO WADE WYANT

Wade Wyant is the founder of REDEGADES.AI and Red Wagon Advisors.

At REDEGADES.AI, he coaches companies to design and implement AI strategies to scale their businesses exponentially, helping one of his clients increase its annual revenue by 4.5x in three years.

Having been a founder of a multi-million-dollar company, Wade sees the importance of embracing innovative technology to enable companies to race to prominent positions in their industries.

REDEGADES.AI has been at the forefront of cutting-edge and strategic AI implementation to enable AI to work alongside leadership as a co-CEO. He has specialized knowledge on how to customize AI for each business so that it effectively reflects each business's unique structure. This enables him to develop a unique approach for individual companies that best meets challenges leaders face within their organizations.

Being an active member of YPO, Wade was honored to receive the Best of the Best award in 2024. In YPO, he has held various positions, such as YNG International co-chair and board member of his local West Michigan chapter.

Wade is the author of three books on business growth and leadership. His first book, Wake-Up Call, climbed to #1 on Amazon's Best Seller list for Business Mentoring & Coaching after just one day.

With a deep understanding of leadership, execution, and operational efficiency, Wade combines the strategic approaches of business thought leaders. This enables him to develop a unique approach for individual companies that best meets challenges leaders face within their organizations.